ORGANISATION BACKGROUND

Founded in 2011, the International NGO Safety Organisation (INSO) is a British charity that supports the operations of other NGOs through coordination platforms that improve the safety of aid workers and the access to difficult-to reach areas. INSO provides registered NGOs with a range of free services including training on first aid, personal safety and critical incident management; information on the local context and advice on humanitarian access; and support to the management of critical incidents affecting aid workers.

INSO services help NGOs with their day-to-day risk management responsibilities and improve their overall situational awareness to support evidence-based humanitarian access decisions.

The Organisation has grown from innovative start-up to become a globally recognised charity and a valuable component of the humanitarian safety coordination system.

Today the Organisation provides daily support to more than 850 NGOs in twelve of the world's most insecure countries and has earned a strong reputation for performance, principles & professionalism.

INSO South Sudan Country Office

INSO will start operations in South Sudan in early 2018. INSO South Sudan aims to provide free services to more than 100 local and international NGOs in the country, enhance the delivery of aid and preserve the safety of their staff. Specifically, the program shall provide the NGO community with tailored safety support through 3 main services: Capacity Building (provision of training to aid workers); Information & Advice (provision of regular context reports, risk assessments and tailored advice on humanitarian access); and Response (support to crisis and critical incident management). INSO services are envisioned to cover the whole country, with 4 field offices expected to open in 2018.
