

Feb 27th, 2018INDIVIDUAL CONSULTANCY ADVERTISEMENT

CMMB is a global non-governmental, humanitarian and development organization with a special focus on making healthcare available to all. CMMB has been implementing comprehensive health intervention in South Sudan since 2009.

CMMB South Sudan is urgently seeking to engage a consultant site supervisor to provide technical backstopping on construction work executed by a contractor for construction of an operating Theater, Maternity, surgical ward and blood Bank in St. Teresa Hospital Nzara.

Job Title:	Consultancy Site Engineer
Duty Station:	Nzara Gbudue State
Reports to:	CHAMPS Coordinator
Closing Date:	5 th March 2018
Contract Duration:	6 Months
Type of contract:	Individual Consultancy
Starting Date:	Immediately

Purpose:

The main Objective of this long-term consultancy is to ensure the provision of professional technical Organization and supervisory quality control during execution of the construction. The assignment includes oversight of the design implementation of the civil works ensures the conformities of the civil work to be done are in accordance with the approved technical documents.

Key Deliverables

- Clear monthly work plan schedule for inspection of construction works
- Weekly and Monthly progress reports on civil works activities.
- Construction work well inspected and timely completed based on approved specifications
- Well- articulated evaluation report on performance of contract contractor

Competencies

- Demonstrates integrity by modeling the cmmb values and ethical standards.
- Promotes the vision, mission and strategic goals of cmmb
- Fulfills all obligations to gender sensitivity and zero tolerance for sexual harassment
- Planning and independently carrying out work requiring Judgment in the evaluation
- Selection, application and adaptation of engineering techniques and procedures
- Functional competences
- Self-driven and result focused
- Problem solving skills, conflict resolution with an eye towards custom service.
- Conceptual thinking and analytical skills, with a strong eye for details
- Excellent communication skills

