II. Organizational Context
The Republic of South Sudan became an independent state on July 9, 2011. The attainment of independence by South Sudan has opened an unprecedented window of opportunity to turn the devastation of over 20 years of civil war, displacement and underdevelopment into a new era of peace and prosperity. The government through the Ministry of Finance and Planning is embarking on revenue modernization and tax policy reforms to boost non-oil revenue generation in a transparent and accountable manner. The continued volatility of the oil price resulting in drastic fall in oil revenue receipts has created fiscal distortion in the fiscal year budgets thereby curtailing government ability to provide adequate services to the people. The government of the Republic of South Sudan through Loan facility from the Africa Development Bank is establishing National Revenue Authority as a single collector to take up the responsibility of collecting all national revenues in an efficient manner. In this regard, a Commissioner General has been appointed to manage the day-to-day administration of the new institution.
