

Terre des hommes

tdh.ch

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Terre des Hommes Foundation (Tdh) is an international NGO focussed on Child Rights. To support the development of its project in Yei River state, Tdh is encouraging applications from South Sudanese nationals for the role of:

MONITORING TEAM LEADER

Duty station: Yei

Contract duration: 3 months(with possibility of extention)

Starting Date: ASAP

Key Activities/Responsibilities

Mid-Day school meal :

- Ensure that the Mid-Day school meal package is adapted to children according to their age and gender and psychosocial state;
- Ensure the participation and ownership of the schools authorities and the community to the Mid-Day school meal package;
- Train, coach and mentor teachers and volunteers;
- Ensure that CPMS are respected;
- Ensure that all professionals working with children have signed and understood Tdh Child Safeguarding Policy;
- Ensure regular follow up of the activities to identify gaps and propose improvement accordingly;
- Liaise and ensure adequate communication with schools authorities to ensure a smooth implementation of the intervention

Safe transportation system :

- Ensure that the Safe school transportation system is child friendly and respects the essential security criteria;
- Ensure the participation and ownership of the schools authorities and the community to the Safe school transportation system e;
- Train, coach and mentor community members and volunteers;
- Ensure that CPMS are respected;
- Ensure that all professionals working with children have signed and understood Tdh Child Safeguarding Policy;
- Ensure regular follow up of the activities to identify gaps and propose improvement accordingly;
- Liaise and ensure adequate communication with schools authorities to ensure a smooth implementation of the intervention

Team management, reporting and communication:

- Identify staff training needs, propose and schedule training sessions on relevant topics related to child protection;
- Establish and maintain positive and efficient relations with target beneficiaries, community members and all the other actors operating in the city;
- Participate in surveys and data collection when required;
- Ensure timely submission of weekly plans and reports to the line manager;
- Liaise with community based organizations and humanitarian organizations on referral and support to vulnerable Children;
- Advocate on beneficiaries' behalf with external parties;
- Offer timely and accurate information and support;
- Inform the line manager of challenges faced and needs for additional support;

- Maintain the highest standards of confidentiality and ensure child safeguarding concerns are reported and followed up;
- Establish synergies with other initiatives and projects to better respond to the needs of the target group;
- Participate in training workshops organized on child protection, PFA and PSS etc;
- Perform other tasks as assigned by the line manager.

Education and experience:

- At least 1 year experience as a Child Protection Project Officer in an INGO
- Knowledge of international humanitarian response and development work
- Proven track record and experience in child protection
- Good understanding of project cycle management
- Previous experience working in the field would be highly appreciated

Key Competencies

- Driving licence
- Planning and organizational skills
- Capacity to work autonomously with little supervision
- Good reporting skills
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Mentoring and capacity building skills
- Knowledge of key child protection issues in the South Sudan context
- Knowledge of child protection system in South Sudan
- Knowledge of best practices in child protection
- English and Kakwa speaker

Application modalities:

Qualified and interested candidates should submit the updated CV with a covering letter to: Terre des Hommes, Plot. 338k, south 2nd Class –thong ping-- off US Embassy Road, at the SSUHA's Yei office (Off Yei-Lasu Road) Erap Area or be emailed to: tdhsshra@gmail.com: Clearly with the title indicated, " MONITORING TEAM LEADER"

Closing date is January 5th, 2017.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for a written test, Submitted documentation will remain Tdh properties (do not submit originals).

