

November, 13th 2018

JOB VACANCY

Job title: Clinical Officer (1)

Duty station: Rumbek State hospital, Western Lakes state-Republic of South Sudan.

Duration: 3 months.

Line manager: Doctors with Africa (CUAMM) Project Manager Rumbek state Hospital and Medical director Rumbek state hospital.

Deadline: 28th November 2018. (Application's will be reviewed on reception with possible recruitment).

Starting date: As soon as possible.

Qualifications:

A Diploma in Clinical Officer from a recognized institution.

Experience:

The proposed candidate MUST have at least a minimum of 2 years' experience as a Clinical Officer, previous experience in management of Medical, Paediatric and Child Health, Out-patient department.

PROPOSED JOB DESCRIPTION FOR A CLINICAL OFFICER

JOB TITLE (POST); CLINICAL OFFICER

Objective of the position;

To improve on the clinical care and training capacity in Rumbek State hospital with a goal oriented approach of ensuring quality health care provision and ensure their realization of SDG-3.

International Non-Governmental Organization

Country Director -Juba

Headquarters
Via San Francesco 126
35121 Padova
Italy

www.doctorswithafrica.org

Departmental deployment;

Medical, Peadiatric and Child Health, Out-patient department.

Organizational hierarchy;

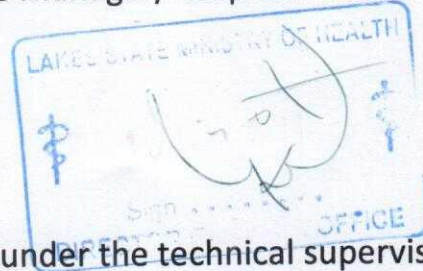

CUAMM Rumbek State Hospital Programme Manager/Hospital medical Director

Line manager;

CUAMM Project Manager/MD RSH

JOB SUMMARY;

The clinical officer(CO) is expected to work under the technical supervision of the CUAMM MD (in-charge of medical and peadiatric wards) in management and follow-up of patients, he/she will

DUTIES

- Participate in routine in-patient follow-up and review with the line manager or as delegated.
- Will contribute to ensure the smooth running and quality patient health care provision in the out-patient department.
- The candidate will be expected to perform on-call duties as required in the duty schedule or on arrangement by the line manager.
- The candidate may be required as assigned by the line manager to support special units of; (TB-clinic, nutrition and ART care centre).
- He/She is expected to participate actively in the hospital's continuous medical education program.

- The prospective candidate will be required to participate actively in the project's routine statistics reporting including the preparation of activity monthly narrative reports
- He / she will be expected to prepare instrument procedure sets and trolleys when required and assist the doctor when performing the procedures.
- The candidate is expected to follow-up on the patient's investigation's requested and timely availability of the results.
- Administers drugs following the right criteria, keeps them in safe custody,

- Documents and signs in the patients file any drug given and orders drugs from pharmacy as required with counter signature of the ward in charge.
- Perform and organize routine health education to the patients and their care-takers.
 - Pays more attention to patients without care takers and reports their special needs to the ward in charge.
 - He/She should possess knowledge and skills in providing proper holistic supportive nursing care to the patients.
 - Able to provide goal oriented antenatal care as provided for in the national and WHO policy protocol.
 - Executes delegated duties from; the line manager and ward-Doctor
 - Exhibit's skilled ability in labour monitoring, management and safe delivery.
 - Should be able to follow-up on departmental medical supplies consumption through the routine use of drug stock cards.
 - He/She will be required to contribute in the management of abortion and provide proper post-abortal care.

Desirable criteria:

- Previous work experience in a humanitarian organization
- Applications are invited ONLY from suitably qualified South Sudanese nationals with valid documentation's.
- Female candidates are strongly advised to apply.

Interested candidates that meet the above criteria should submit their updated CV and cover/motivational letter via email to the address below indicating in the subject, CLINICAL OFFICER-RSH.

r.chekata@cuamm.org

cc: m.kawaja@cuamm.org, m.jotichi@cuamm.org

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted who will be expected to submit physically their credentials.