

Our Vision for every Child, Life in all its Fullness; Our Prayer for every heart, the will to make it so
Building Brighter Futures for Vulnerable Children

INDIVIDUAL FOOD SECURITY PROJECT MANAGER CONSULTANCY OPPORTUNITY

World Vision is a Christian relief, development and advocacy organisation dedicated to working with children, families and communities to overcome poverty and injustice. World Vision serves all people, regardless of religion, race, ethnicity or gender. All employment in World Vision is conditioned upon successful completion of all applicable background checks, including criminal record checks where possible.

World Vision South Sudan is now seeking for a qualified and dynamic Individual Food Security Project Manager Consultant (Man or Woman) who is willing to share in our vision and promise to Children, to join us as a an Individual Food Security Project Manager. The Individual Food Security Project Manager Consultant will be based in Juba. The consultancy shall be for 3 months

Purpose of the Consultancy:

The Food Security and Livelihoods project manager is responsible for providing operational guidance in World Vision's FSL projects in the Juba region. The project manager will be the overall in charge of the attainment of set project objectives and outputs in coordination with the area team leader and grants acquisition team as well as government line ministries. The position involves supervising project staff including assigning those daily tasks. To be the technical project lead, conduct and coordinate needs assessments, progress reporting as well as coordinating with local partners for better impact.

Major Roles and Responsibilities of the Food Security Project Manager

- To implement the food security and livelihood projects/interventions integrating this with the line government departments at county and other World Vision projects in the same locations within donor and World Vision policies
- To plan and follow up project activities with the team such as field assessments, market price monitoring, and distribution of livelihood inputs (agricultural seeds & tools), implementation of trainings for food production and development for livelihood activities
- Break down the annual operational plans into weekly, monthly and quarterly implementation plans to enhance proper implementation of the project by all project staff.
- Ensure that project activities and outputs are attained within set timelines as per the DIP.
- Ensure high quality reports are timely produced and submitted within donor requirements/guidelines.
- To technically mentor and supervise Food security and Assistant food Security Officers working under his supervision and carry out Staff performance
- Establish transparent relationships with all partners including identification of community priorities, concerns and managing expectations in regards to FSL interventions.
- Ensure that procurement, development and distribution of materials and equipment are timely and according to procedures
- To supervise and train the FSL project Officers /assistants on efficient planning, coordination, implementation and monitoring and evaluation (M&E) of the project activities
- Responsible for monitoring the impact of the project, support decision making and promote learning through documentation of best practices and follow up of necessary adjustment (Change management).

Qualifications: Education/Knowledge/Technical Skills and Experience

- Degree in Agriculture (Crop and Livestock) or related field is required.
- Certificate course in project management is strongly preferred.
- A minimum of 3 years' experience in food security coordination or management a non-profit organization.
- Prior experience with implementation of an ANCP or DFAT a requirement.
- Experience in market linkages and value chains a must.
- Willingness to in a challenging context and fragile context.
- The candidate must be a team player.
- Experience working in a humanitarian setting / fragile context an advantage.
- The candidate must have good interpersonal skills, be flexible and solutions-oriented, and demonstrate strong oral / written English communication skills.

HOW TO APPLY

Interested Individual Food Security Project Manager Consultants who meets the above criteria should submit their application, cover letter and an updated CV with at least three referees with their telephone and email contacts.

Address your application to: The Human Resource Manager, World Vision South Sudan and indicate the position you're applying for in the subject line.

Applications should be submitted to this email recruitsdno@wvi.org

Closing date for receiving applications is: July 30th, 2017

Please note that only shortlisted candidates shall be contacted and documents once submitted will not be returned to the candidates.

Our Vision for every Child, Life in all its Fullness; Our Prayer for every heart, the will to make it so Building Brighter Futures for Vulnerable Children

JOB TITLE: EDUCATION PROJECT MANAGER – YAMBIO

World Vision is a Christian relief, development and advocacy organisation dedicated to working with children, families and communities to overcome poverty and injustice. World Vision serves all people, regardless of religion, race, ethnicity or gender. All employment in World Vision is conditioned upon successful completion of all applicable background checks, including criminal record checks where possible.

World Vision South Sudan is now seeking for a qualified and dynamic Education Project Manager (Man or Woman) who is willing to share in our vision and promise to Children, to join us as Education Project Manager. The Education Project Manager will be based in Yambio.

Purpose of the Consultancy:

The Project Manager will provide leadership and be responsible for the overall implementation of the project, including ensuring high quality, on-time, and on-budget achievements of project activities. S/he will ensure that children targeted in the Project are cared for, protected, actively participating in the education related activities, and that the highest standards of quality, Code of Conduct and care are maintained.

Major Roles and Responsibilities of the Education Project Manager

- Provide leadership to the Education in Emergencies (EiE) project team in Greater Equatorial Zone to ensure that targets are met according to design.
- Ensure implementation of the Project is according to national guidelines, and programme objectives.
- Update and manage key project management tools including Detailed Implementation Plan, Indicator Tracking, Budget/Spending Plan, Procurement Plan & Tracker, etc. to ensure that the Project is well supported and implemented according to the timeframe and approved budget
- Engage community in project implementation planning, identification of schools support with TLS, various training and teacher incentives.
- Supervise construction of TLS, teacher training and other support proposed.
- Ensure the Project complements other WVSS projects and programmes, especially those implemented in the same area.
- Partner, coordinate and network with the County Education Office, churches, Search for Common Ground, other WVSS programmes, community and other stakeholders to positively impact the lives of children and maintain effective working relationships.
- In conjunction with WVSS Supply Chain, maintain adequate supply of education materials for project implementation.

- Write and render internal and external project implementation reports in a timely manner, using WVSS and donor formats, as required.
- Monitor and evaluate project implementation and achievement and report to UNICEF Field Office as per design.
- Regularly conduct assessments to provide an overview of emerging needs and situations on the ground and suggest appropriate intervention strategies.
- Document most significant change stories.
- Support, supervise and mentor Project Officers; and where necessary, provide a surge of capacity and skills transfer to field teams directly involved in project implementation.
- When necessary, assist in the development of education concept notes and proposals in coordination with the relevant WVSS personnel.
- Possess a working knowledge of children's rights and policies

Qualifications: Education/Knowledge/Technical Skills and Experience

- MA in Education, Social Sciences or a relevant field with professional technical experience, with 3 years and or Bachelor's Degree in the same discipline with at least 5 years implementing education programmes in South Sudan.
- Demonstrated experience in capacity building, project design and budget management.
- Strong understanding of South Sudan operational context.
- Experience working and coordinating with RSS and other stakeholders.
- Good understanding of education sector in greater Western Equatorial region.
- Excellent analytical, written and computer skills.
- Fluency in English and Arabic.

HOW TO APPLY:

Interested applicants who meets the above criteria should submit their application, cover letter and an updated CV with at least three referees with their telephone and email contacts.

Address your application to: The Human Resource Manager, World Vision South Sudan and indicate the position you're applying for in the subject line.

Applications should be submitted to this email recruitsdno@wvi.org

Closing date for receiving applications is: July 30th, 2017

Please note that only shortlisted candidates shall be contacted and documents once submitted will not be returned to the candidates.

