CAFOD is the official aid agency of the Catholic Church in England and Wales. We work in more than forty countries worldwide. In South Sudan, CAFOD is a registered international non-governmental organization. We work across South Sudan with local communities and with our partners, in areas of poverty eradication, assistance in humanitarian emergencies, awareness and promotion of social justice.

CAFOD's South Sudan office is based in Juba. We have recently moved to new premises located in Hai Malakal. Presently, the building is occupied as an office only. We are currently looking to extend the building to accommodate staff members, as well as provide for additional space for visitors to our office in Juba.

We invite you to tender your proposal for the design and construction of two additional floors to the existing building.

Interested contractors may obtain a tender dossier with requirement details in English language by emailing southsudanjobs@cafod.org.uk or collect a hard copy from our office Plot 19, Block AXIII, Hai Malakal, Juba (former Norwegian Embassy). A compulsory site visit for interested bidders will be on Saturday 7th October from 10.30 until 1.30pm.

Completed documents must be submitted no later than 15th October 2017 in a sealed envelope with the reference stated above.

Bids will be opened at the specified office address at 2.30pm on Monday 16th October 2017, suppliers may be present.
