

Request for CVs

About Us

Dynamic Consult Limited is an ICT Solutions and Training Consulting Firm operating in South Sudan. The Company was founded by youthful development enthusiasts with the aim of addressing pressing developmental needs through the use of ICT and capacity building by providing specialized technical expertise in a range of key service areas. These focus areas are Web design and hosting, IT Support and maintenance, Applications development, ICT Supplies, training and Capacity Development. We embrace partnerships and excellence in providing services and strive to deliver the highest value to our customers while fostering development and prosperity in the region.

Purpose of this request

Dynamic Consult Limited is in the process of populating its database with resumes of experts from various fields, working in South Sudan and the region and who we will reach out to when a need for a specialised service arises. Consultancies and conducting trainings will be main areas of focus for this collaboration

Key areas of experts required

We are particularly keen to get CVs of experts who have qualifications and experiences in the following areas.

- > Project Planning
- > Proposal Writing
- > Project Management
- > Business Skills Training
- > Monitoring, Evaluation and Reporting
- > Procurement and supply chain management
- > Human Resource Management Training
- > Customer care Training
- > IT/Computer Training
- > Microsoft office packages
- > Financial management
- > Small and Medium scale enterprise development
- > District Health Information System (DHIS)

Minimum Qualifications and Experience

All experts wishing to send in their CVs should have a minimum qualification of a bachelor's degree and preferably with a Master's degree in a relevant field and an extensive experience working in South Sudan and/or the sub-Saharan region is an added advantage.

Contact Details

Please send your response to the following email address

jgama@dynamicconsult.co.ke