

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The Access to Justice Project is managed by the British Council and funded by the European Union. The Project aims to support access to justice in South Sudan and raise public awareness and understanding of the rule of law, particularly at community level.

The British Council seeks candidates for the following short-term positions, based in Juba:

- Liaison Worker Co-ordinator, Access to Justice
- Liaison Worker, Access to Justice (several positions)

Duration of position

Three months with possible extension. Part-time

Purpose

The Liaison Worker Co-ordinator and the Liaison Worker will work with communities in Juba to help improve access to justice and to raise awareness and understanding of the rule of law. H/she will observe and support local courts and facilitate forums with communities and local justice actors.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities of the Liaison Worker Co-ordinator and the Liaison Workers include co-ordination and implementation of Customary Justice System Forums, Community Forums, as well as court observance and support. The Liaison Worker Co-ordinator will have the responsibility of co-ordinating activity of the Liaison Worker team and reporting to the central Access to Justice Project management team.

Knowledge and skills

Both positions require strong communication skills. Extensive knowledge and experience of the court systems in South Sudan and the communities in which they are located is essential. Ability to build and maintain effective stakeholder relationships is also essential. Successful candidates will have research experience and/or proven ability to prepare detailed, accurate and timely reports. Experience of working within the justice sector in South Sudan is desirable.

Fluency in English is essential; fluency in Arabic and a good command of at least one local language in the community project sites is desirable. Ability to translate court proceedings (if in local language) into English and submit reports in English.

Applications

Candidates for these positions should submit an updated CV and cover letter outlining their suitability for the assignment to info.atjp@britishcouncil.org

Applications should be received by 5pm on Monday 25 May 2017.

ONLY SHORTLISTED APPLICANTS WILL BE CONTACTED

The British Council is committed to a policy of equal opportunity and welcomes applications from all sections of the community.
