Job title: FSL Cluster Co-coordinator

Reporting to: FSL Project Manager

Location: Juba

Availability: As soon as possible

Purpose of the position:

Since 2018, World Vision has been elected by peer NGOs to serve as the Food Security and Livelihoods (FSL) Co-coordinator, representing international NGO partners at the national level to co-lead the FSL Cluster. This vital role involves working closely with the Cluster Lead Agencies (CLAs), which are co-hosted by the World Food Programme (WFP) and the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), and led by the Cluster Coordinator, who reports to the CLAs. The primary responsibility of this position is to oversee and coordinate the efforts of the FSL Cluster at the national and sub-national levels, with the aim of ensuring the delivery of lifesaving assistance to the people of South Sudan through an effective and responsive partnership system. The FSL Co-coordinator manages a network of FSL partners operating across South Sudan's humanitarian response, ensuring cohesive collaboration and strategic alignment among these agencies. Additionally, the role involves facilitating coordination with a broader network of more than 200 partners involved in FSL activities nationwide. Key duties include co-developing a strategic vision, facilitating cluster activities, and implementing operational response plans that are aligned with the overall humanitarian strategy. The Co-coordinator also ensures robust coordination of Technical Working Groups among partner agencies and documents lessons for future programming. As part of the FSL Cluster secretariat, the Co-coordinator represents the interests and priorities of international NGOs within the global FS cluster network and different humanitarian architectures. This role is crucial for streamlining efforts, advocating for resources, and ensuring that food security and livelihoods interventions effectively address the urgent needs of vulnerable populations in South Sudan.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Co-lead a large network of FSL partners through cluster meetings and training workshops as well as one-on-one advisement.
- Together with the cluster coordinator, provide leadership and strategic direction in the prioritization of needs and selection and monitoring of project proposals and common funding criteria for inclusion in South Sudan Humanitarian Fund (SSHF) standard and reserve allocations, Central Emergency response fund (CERF), DOS priorities, and other inter-agency funding appeals.
- Co-lead in conducting various FSL-related assessments, analyses, and prioritization processes, including through the Inter Cluster Coordination Group (ICCG), and other sub-national coordination mechanisms.
- Facilitate Technical Working Groups when needed (for example, Agriculture, Livestock, Fisheries, Cash and Markets) and oversee the smooth implementation of the National Integrated Emergency Response Program (IERP) by different partners.
- In coordination with the cluster coordinator, ensure that the Cluster's strategic operational framework is regularly updated to reflect evolving needs, and that appropriate links and dialogue are maintained with Cluster partners and other relevant actors, especially national NGOs and INGOs, as well as the NGO Forum.

Qualifications/Education/Knowledge/Technical Skills and Experience.

The following may be acquired through a combination of formal or self-education, prior experience or on-the-job training:

Essential and Desirable experience

- Master's Degree in a relevant field is preferred

- Minimum of a bachelor's degree in Disaster Risk Management (DRM), Agriculture, Food Security or a relevant field from a recognized University
- Minimum 5 years of experience in managing FSL projects in fragile contexts
- Technical competence in the Cluster system and Food Security and Livelihoods sector
- Ability to contribute actively and meaningfully to complex analysis and strategy formulation
- Full understanding of the humanitarian Cluster system including pooled funding mechanisms
- Strong ability to work with diverse stakeholders to develop consensus
- Effective communicator with strong presentation/facilitation skills
- Ability to apply humanitarian principles and enable the links between emergency response, recovery and transition to development
- Experience in proposal development and budget management a key attribute
- Fluent verbal and written communication in English
- Experience in proposal design and writing and/or reviewing
- Prior experience working with a UN agency or within the Cluster system
- Arabic language skills considered a plus
