

CALL FOR APPLICATION

Global Entrepreneurship and Innovation Bootcamp Scholarships Virtual training for youth on entrepreneurship and innovation

Are you a young South Sudan citizen aged between 18–35 years old, fluent in English, basic computer skills, and keen to develop your knowledge/skills on entrepreneurship and innovation?

The Thunderbird School of Global Management is offering scholarships to young South Sudanese to undertake a Global Entrepreneurship and Innovation Virtual Course.

Application should be submitted through ssco.vacancies@unfpa.org no later than May 20th ,2022 17:00 pm CAT. Females, people with disabilities, living with HIV, in humanitarian situations and key populations are strongly encouraged to apply.

www.southsudan.unfpa.org

A world where every young person's potential is fulfilled.

Sustainable Development Goals

The Benefits

Identify and incorporate the skills and traits of successful entrepreneurs and their enterprises.

Learn to leverage the holistic global entrepreneurship ecosystem and related drivers.

Gain knowledge and skills from case examples spanning multiple countries to adopt success practices and understand challenges to avoid.

Engage thought-provoking interactives for a more personalized learning experience.

Develop both the global mindset and transdisciplinary skills necessary to advance an entrepreneurial venture with global orientation and ambition.

Master proven methods for planning and financing entrepreneurial ventures to transform bold, innovative thinking into viable global endeavors.

