Mines Advisory Group (MAG) is a Humanitarian, non-profit organization concerned with the impact of landmines in South Sudan. MAG South Sudan is recruiting for highly competent, proactive Community Liaison Officer for its field-based operations.

Summary of the Position

The CLO Work with communities in a participatory way to implement MAG's community liaison activities, as directed by the Technical Field Manager (TFM) through the Community Liaison Team Leader.

This is a field-based position, and will be part of a MAG project that carries out activities in communities affected by landmines across the country. The applicant must be willing to work, travel to any part of South Sudan when required.

Principal responsibilities

MAG South Sudan employs multi-skilled Community Liaison / Mine Risk Education teams. A Community Liaison Officer will therefore be expected to carry out some, or all, of the following activities:

- Ensure the safe execution of all Community Liaison duties, in line with SOP's, as directed by the TFM or Team Leader.
- Liaise with communities, local authorities and other NGO's to gather information using interviews, meetings, community mapping and other participatory activities.
- Deliver risk education to targeted groups ensuring that all participants have a good understanding of risks and mitigation strategies.
- Deliver training and provide on-going support to key community focal points to enable them to implement appropriate MRE activities.
- Contribute ideas to improve the delivery of safety messages to the communities in order to achieve the aim of behaviour change.
- Conduct need and impact assessments as directed by the TFM or Team Leader.
- Conduct non-technical survey and record confirmed/suspected hazardous areas as reported by the community, in line IMSMA requirements.
- Take due care and responsibility for all equipment issued by MAG.

MAG is a humanitarian organisation clearing the remnants of conflict for the benefit of communities worldwide.
MAG is co-laureate of the 1997 Nobel Peace Prize.
Charity No.1083008. A company registered in England and Wales No 4016409.

Reporting and Record Keeping

- Record the impact of MAG's work and the need for future work through the collection of case studies, photographs, needs assessments and evaluation reports.
- Record all mine/UXO related accident or incident, as reported by the communities, following IMSMA reporting tools.

Shared Responsibilities

- All field team members have a shared responsibility to maintain high levels of hygiene and health and safety standards in operational and camp areas.
- Carry out any other duties deemed necessary and reasonable to meet MAG's operational requirements, as requested by the line manager or supervisor.

All staff are expected to undertake the following general duties

- Work within the framework of MAG's core values, promoting its ethos and mission statement.
- Work towards achieving programme objectives.
- Ensure familiarity with and adhere to all MAG policies and procedures and keep informed of MAG activities.
- Undertake and apply learning from appropriate training and development programmes.

Some Job Descriptions may be supplemented by specific Terms of Reference.
