Are you a young graduate between the ages of 18–35 who has completed university and is still seeking meaningful employment? Do you believe in driving positive change in your community?

Here is an opportunity to apply to the Youth Volunteer Empowerment Programme (YVEP), also known as KUBRI! Led by the Ministry of Youth and Sports with support from UNFPA South Sudan, implemented by Impact Health Organization (IHO), this 6-month national volunteer initiative offers you a chance to gain valuable experience, develop leadership skills, and contribute to the country's growth.

What you gain:

- ✓ Placement in key government institutions
- ✓ Monthly stipends
- ✓ Professional mentorship and skills training
- ✓ Certificate of participation
- ✓ Opportunity to contribute to national development in areas like youth empowerment, health, gender equality, peacebuilding, and more

Eligibility Criteria:

- South Sudanese youth aged 18–35
- Completed undergraduate degree in any field.
- Unemployed for up to 4 years post-graduation
- Inclusive of youth with disabilities

How to Apply

Send your application to hrm@ihosavinglives.org copying pm@ihosavinglives.org and emmanueladukose@gmail.com

The hard copies can be delivered to IHO Head Office, Bilpham Road, TongPing, Midan Rembo next to AIDA Hotel, Juba, South Sudan.

Deadline for Application: 29, May, 2025

This is more than a volunteer opportunity but a stepping stone to leadership, experience and national service.
