Position: Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist
Project: ILIPS, FONA and CDRD
Reports to: Project Coordinator
Contract Duration: Until September 2025
Location: Juba with occasional travel in South Sudan

Background:

In South Sudan, GIZ works on behalf of the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) in the following three priority areas: Food and nutrition security and rural development, urban water supply and sanitation, rural development and good governance. GIZ's coordination office has been in the capital, Juba, since 2010.

The GIZ Coordination Office Juba is urgently seeking a qualified candidate to fill the vacant position of Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist for its 3 livelihood and rural development projects.

Scope of the Position:

Generally, the Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist works independently and in accordance with GIZ processes and rules. The Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist responds promptly and competently to matters that fall within his/her assigned thematic area, where applicable in consultation with his/her line manager.

Your Tasks

- ❖ Support to the Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) Expert (based in Germany) in the development and implementation of an efficient context and conflict-sensitive results-based monitoring system;
- ❖ Support the M&E colleague in Germany in fulfilling the M&E requirements, including regular reporting to GIZ and commissioning party (BMZ), on activities, outputs, impacts, and external risks, including quality assurance of data sets and data analysis;
- ❖ Support the implementing partner organizations in establishing a custom-fit M&E system based on GIZ criteria;
- ❖ Support implementing partner organizations in collecting data and relevant information for ongoing evaluation of project activities, results, impacts and assessment of external risks;
- ❖ Conduct regular visits to the implementing partners to check on progress of data collection and to advice on problem solutions;
- ❖ Liaise with project colleagues and external partners and coordinate knowledge transfer between the GIZ offices in South Sudan and Germany;
- ❖ Capacity building of program/project staff to ensure M&E tools are fully understood and used appropriately;
- ❖ Organize regular program/project reviews in consultation with the program staff to ensure implementations are on track.

Your Profile

- ❖ Bachelor's degree in political, economic or social sciences, agricultural science, or equivalent;
- ❖ Minimum three years of professional experience in Monitoring and Evaluation (preferably with GIZ), in data collection and analysis, in aggregated reporting as well as in coordination and cooperation with external partners;
- ❖ Professional experience and knowledge in the fields of agriculture, rural development, food security and forced displacement;
- ❖ Excellent in-depths understanding of local contexts in the project regions (Equatoria Region, Northern Bahr el Ghazal);
- ❖ Excellent communication skills, proven ability to draft and present complexities in easily understandable language, in a clear and target group-oriented manner;
- ❖ Strong digital skills, service orientation and ability to perform under time pressure;
- ❖ Business fluency in English.

How to Apply

Applicants should submit their CVs and cover letters declaring interest for the position to the GIZ-Coordination Office along ministries road Juba town next to Juba town main mosque or by email to HR-Suedsudan@giz.de.

Please note that all applications must be submitted with non-returnable photocopies of all the relevant documents including recommendation(s) from previous employer(s) and a copy of the national certificate. Original documents will only be required for verification during interviews if requested. Ensure that you and your referees are reachable via the stated contact information during daytime.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for interviews. If you didn't hear from GIZ in 3 weeks after closing date, please note that your application wasn't successful. This position is open only to South Sudanese nationals.
