REQUEST FOR QUOTATION

Date: 18th November, 2020

INVITATION TO BID FOR RENOVATION-Jonglei state women association (JSWA)
Centre and Construction of three temporary women and girls friendly space in Bor town & south

1.0.Introduction:

STEWARDWOMEN is an indigenous South Sudanese women organization founded in 2009 to address the problems of sexual and gender based violence; lack of access to justice by women; lack of participation of women in leadership and decision-making and poverty among others. It is registered as a not for profit non- governmental organization with the government of South Sudan in 2009. Our vision is a South Sudanese society “free from the violations of the human rights of women and children”. Our mission is “to develop, shape and empower South Sudanese women to advocate for policies that foster equal economic opportunity and secure human rights for women and children”.

Our 2018-2020 strategic intervention areas are: 1) Access to justice; 2) Legislation and law reform; 3) Psychosocial support to GBV survivors; 4) Protection of adolescent girls in schools; 5) Women leadership and empowerment; 6) Governance/peace building, Sexual and Reproductive Health rights and Economic Empowerment.

We are a member of the Solidarity of African Women’s Rights [SOAWRS] that campaigns for the ratification and/or domestication of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and People’s Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa [Maputo protocol]. We are also the lead agency of a national coalition of 40 CSOs that advocates for the ratification of the Maputo protocol in South Sudan. Our field offices are located in Romich in Tonj East county [Tonj state] and in Nimule in Magwi county [Torit State], Bentiu (Northern Liech State), Bor in Jonglei state and a national coordination office in Juba.
