Small Business (SB)

The Small Business Administration (SBA), for most industries, defines a "small business" either in terms of the average number of employees over the past 12 months, or average annual receipts over the past three years. In addition, SBA defines a U.S. small business as a concern that: is organized for profit; has a place of business in the US; operates primarily within the U.S. or makes a significant contribution to the U.S. economy through payment of taxes or use of American products, materials or labor; is independently owned and operated; and is not dominant in its field on a national basis. The business may be a sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or any other legal form. In determining what constitutes a small business, the definition will vary to reflect industry differences, such as size standards (reference NAICS \(www.census.gov/eos/www/naics/\)).

Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB)

Identified groups include African Americans, Asian Pacific Americans, Hispanic Americans, Native Americans and Subcontinent Asian Americans. Members of other groups may qualify if they can satisfactorily demonstrate that they meet established criteria.

In the event EDC terminates the Order, or part thereof, for convenience, Seller shall be paid a reasonable termination charge consisting of a pro rata percentage of the Order price reflecting the percentage of acceptable work performed prior to notice of termination, plus actual documented direct costs resulting from termination. Furthermore, Seller is responsible for ensuring that all formalities and requirements related to customs and importation will be performed properly.

5. Notice of Delay: Seller must immediately notify EDC in writing with all relevant information relating to any delay or threatened delay of the timely performance of the Order.

Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by EDC, EDC shall have a right to inspect Goods for conformity before payment or acceptance of such Goods, in accordance with Section 2-513(1) of the UCC. Payment for Goods made before inspection for conformity shall not constitute an acceptance of such Goods or impair EDC's right to inspect such Goods or any of EDC's remedies, in accordance with Section 2-512(2) of the UCC. Goods rejected or supplies in excess of quantities ordered may be returned to Seller at Seller's expense.

12. Hold Harmless: Seller shall defend and hold harmless EDC, its directors, overseers, officers, trustees, agents and employees against and from any and all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, and legal fees whatsoever, without limitation, arising in connection with any Goods purchased under the Order or from any act, omission, operation, product or service of Seller, its employees, agents, suppliers, and subcontractors.

13. Insurance: Seller shall maintain adequate insurance in any and all forms necessary to protect both Seller and EDC against all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, settlements, expenses, and legal fees arising out of or resulting from performance of this agreement. 14. Limitations: EDC shall not be liable to Seller, its employees, representatives, agents, subcontractors or suppliers for any incidental or consequential damages. EDC shall not be liable for penalties of any kind. Any action caused by any alleged breach of this agreement by EDC must be commenced within one year after the cause of action has accrued.

15. Indemnification-Patents/Copyright: The Seller agrees to indemnify EDC and to hold EDC harmless from and against all claims, liability, loss, damage, and expenses including legal fees, arising from or due to any actual or claimed trademark, patent, or copyright infringement and any litigation based thereon, with respect to any part of Goods and work covered by the Order.
