ABOUT CARE

At CARE, we seek a world of hope, inclusion, and social justice, where poverty has been overcome and people live with dignity and security.

This has been our vision since 1945, when we were founded to send lifesaving CARE Packages® to survivors of World War II. Today, CARE is a leader in the global movement to end poverty. We put women and girls in the center because we know we cannot overcome poverty until all people have equal rights and opportunities. In 2019, CARE worked in 100 countries and reached 70 million people with an incredible range of life-saving programs.

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR GIE KNOWLEDGE EXCHANGE AND LEARNING EVENT IN JUBA SOUTH SUDAN

1. INTRODUCTION.

The GAC funded Gender in Emergencies: Building a Critical Evidence Base for Change project aims to support the scale-up, piloting and socialization of GiE initiatives in humanitarian responses in South Sudan, and work to measure its effectiveness and share its lessons for the benefit of the implementing agencies, their partners, and the humanitarian sector. Mainstreaming Gender in Emergencies activities within existing projects often does not enable agencies to document their learning, take pilots to scale, nor for them to undertake advocacy within the humanitarian system to push for system-wide changes. As a result, there is a lack of evidence base around the value of Gender in Emergencies.

In Pillar 2 of the Gender in Emergencies project (1200: Increased access to feminist knowledge, including best and emerging practice on gender in emergencies, by humanitarian actors including WRAs), the objective is to generate and disseminate learning on supporting women's leadership in humanitarian decision-making spaces.

1. SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

The specific objectives for the knowledge exchange and learning event is to provide an opportunity for various national and international nongovernmental humanitarian and developmental agencies' staff and partners, donors representatives - Embassy of Canada in Juba, consortium members - OXFAM, South Sudan local authorities at various governance levels - national and state legislatures, policy makers, government line ministries, community leaders, religious groups, women and youth groups, women-led and women right organizations, civil society organizations, academia, media houses etc. to exchange knowledge and learnings including sharing of feminist MEAL approaches. The discussion and outcomes from the learning event will contribute to informing humanitarian interventions across the country to improve quality of gender programming and mainstreaming gender into other humanitarian sectors, including the public and private sectors.

2. METHODOLOGY

- Project summary/overview (PowerPoint presentation on background, key achievements, lessons learned, recommendations and way forward)
- Launching of GiE project Learning Briefs (Research documents) and Film with key messages on gender equality, women empowerment and leadership and participation in decision-making spaces.
- Enable peer-to-peer dialogue on successes and challenges to stimulate cross-country learning and lead to adaptations/improvements in various humanitarian projects implementation.

3. DELIVERABLES

- Documented learning on the "HOW" theme from the 2 years project implementation
- Summary of key discussion points related to learnings on the HOW theme.
- Action plans for CARE Gender and Protection Pillar for adaptations defined through learning and discussions.
- Key learnings captured from outcome harvesting on "WHAT" and "WHY" questions.

4. PARTICIPANTS

The learning event is expected to bring together 60 participants from various organizations in Juba including CARE staff both Juba and Wau offices, government line ministries i.e., ministry of gender, child, and social welfare officials, GBV AoR representatives, donor's representatives, civil society organizations, women and youth groups, women-led and women rights organizations, role model men and boys (gender equality male champions) and the media preferably South Sudan Broadcasting Cooperation - SSBC, eye Radio, and Miraya FM for their wider coverage advantage across the country and Wau inclusive.

DATE AND LOCATION

The event will be held on Tuesday, 20th February 2024 in Juba preferably at a venue with a theatrical advantage.
