2. PURPOSE OF CONSULTANCY:

The purpose of this consultancy is to develop and design a manual for National TVET Apprenticeship Guideline for South Sudan. The successful consultancy firm will develop a manual and guidelines aimed at offering apprenticeship in a structured manner while offering opportunities for drawing learnings. A national level guideline will strengthen the activities in the National TVET working group.

3. BACKGROUND:

Finn Church Aid is a faith-based organisation founded in 1947. FCA is the largest Finnish development cooperation organisation and the second largest provider of humanitarian aid. FCA operates in around 13 countries in Asia, Africa and the Middle East. We work with the poorest people, regardless of their religious beliefs, ethnic background or political convictions. Our operation includes long-term development cooperation, humanitarian assistance and advocacy. FCA operates around three thematic areas of focus: Right to Quality Education, Right to Livelihoods and Right to Peace. FCA is a member of the ACT Alliance.

4. JUSTIFICATION

FCA, in consortium with Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC), Association of Christian Relief Organization in South Sudan (ACROSS) and Vocational Skills Development Organization (VOSDO) is implementing an EU funded EMPOWER II project “Enhancing Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) for Youth Employment in South Sudan”.

The overall objective of this project is to promote empowerment of youth in South Sudan, through access to relevant and quality TVET and income generating opportunities. The expected outcomes of the action are; Improvement in nationwide coordination and management of TVET; Increased access to improved quality TVET for vulnerable youth through centre based TVET trainings and on-the-job training; Increased access to income generating opportunities for vulnerable youth through business start-up support and linkages to labour market.

The targeted locations of the project are in Central Equatoria, Jonglei and Western Bahr El Ghazal States in South Sudan.

The project intends to collaborate and coordinate with the TVET technical working group, relevant line ministries, public employment services, entities promoting apprenticeships and other stakeholders and partners in the design and development of the proposed TVET apprenticeship manual for South Sudan.

5. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF CONSULTANCY:

- Conduct an initial review of existing TVET apprenticeship guideline manuals in South Sudan, including local, traditional understanding of apprenticeship and its practices. This shall be through stakeholder workshops where samples of TVET apprenticeship guidelines will be provided.
- Develop and design National Apprenticeship Guideline for South Sudan. The guideline is required to be the consultant's own production, not plagiarized material and should respect copyrights when referencing other sources.

In the processes of developing the Apprenticeship Manual, the consultant shall be encouraged;

- 1) To spell out all the necessary steps needed to promote quality apprenticeship programmes that address the labour market demands in South Sudan.
- 2) To include career guidance and comprehensive advice for the youth of South Sudan on further learning, career decisions and guidance on seeking apprenticeship in the private sector.
- 3) To design the definitions for the concepts of on-the-job-training and off-the-job learning, in-company-training, apprenticeship, industrial attachment etc. to be chosen and validated by the workshop of the duty-bearers
- 4) To design/give recommendations for the necessary regulations, policies or Acts related to apprenticeship (e.g. insurances, rights and responsibilities of the trainee including their occupational safety and health and the on-the-job-trainer, contents, incentives etc.)
- 5) To design related harmonized templates for e.g. apprenticeship contract etc.
- 6) To give recommendations as to how the apprenticeship is embedded to the TVET curricula.
