ABOUT BBC MEDIA ACTION:

BBC Media Action believes in the power of media and communication to help reduce poverty and support people in understanding their rights. Our aim is to inform, connect and empower people around the world. We are passionate about people getting the information they need and in turn being able to communicate – to good effect – with those in power.

To achieve this, Media Action partners with civil society, local media, and governments to:

- Produce creative programmes in multi-media formats, based on robust research, which inform and engage audiences around key development issues.
- Strengthen the media sector through building professional capacity and infrastructure.

BBC Media Action delivers a portfolio of media and communication for development projects in South Sudan. We seek to expand this portfolio of work, ensuring that existing projects are delivered on time, to budget, to the highest standards, and in accordance with BBC editorial values as well as Media Action best practice.

PROJECT BACKGROUND:

Life in Lulu is BBC Media Action's long-running radio drama in South Sudan. In the past the storylines focused on beliefs about health, conflict, and peaceful co-existence. To date, 8 series of the drama have been produced and BBC Media Action is preparing to produce an additional 2 series. These will focus on youth civic engagement, including sexual and gender-based violence. The drama will be produced in local languages and broadcasted nationally and across community stations, use digital platforms and work with CSOs to implement community outreach activities.

OVERALL, PURPOSE OF THE JOB:

To take responsibility of the launch of the first BBC Media Action South Sudan social media channels on Facebook, Instagram, and others. To lead the social media production team in creating bespoke content for social media on multiple social networks like Facebook, Instagram and others, including interviews, video incl. short form video, photos, infographics and other editorial content. To promote content on social media in original ways, best suited for each respective platform. To engage online communities and
