

Call for Youth Participation: Design the Official Logo of the Youth Volunteer Empowerment Programme (YVEP/KUBRI)

Are you a talented and creative young South Sudanese between the age of 18-35? Have you completed an undergraduate program within the last 4 years? Here's your opportunity to make a real impact!

The Ministry of Youth and Sports, in partnership with UNFPA South Sudan and Impact Health Organization (IHO), invites you to design the official logo for the Youth Volunteer Empowerment Programme (YVEP) also known as KUBRI.

About the Programme

YVEP/KUBRI is a national initiative dedicated to empowering youth aged 18–35 (especially recent graduates who are unemployed) by engaging them in volunteering roles across government ministries and institutions. The program addresses urgent issues such as:

- High youth unemployment
- Limited access to opportunities
- Social exclusion.

Through KUBRI, volunteers will be placed in critical sectors such health, education, gender, peacebuilding, environment to contribute to national development, gain real-world experience, and build networks for future employment.

Why You Should Participate

- Enrollment as a Participant: The best logo design will automatically enroll the creator as a participant in the youth volunteer program.
- Visual Representation: Your design will become the visual representation of the program's mission, values, and dedication to positive change in South Sudan.
- Active Involvement: By contributing your creativity, you'll actively engage in the youth volunteer scheme and contribute to development efforts.

Logo Design Guidelines

- Theme: The design should symbolize community spirit, youth empowerment, and sustainable development.
- Creativity: Unleash your originality! Submit a logo that reflects the hopes and ambitions of South Sudanese youth.
- Inclusivity: We strongly encourage submissions from females and persons with disabilities.

How to Apply

1. Send your expression of interest and logo file to tenderss@ihosavinglives.org copying pm@ihosavinglives.org and emmanueladukose@gmail.com
2. Deadline for submission: 08/ May 2025.
