

EY Annual Tax Training on South Sudan Tax Legislation

DATES: 8TH, 9TH & 10TH NOVEMBER 2023

Venue: Palm Africa Hotel, Juba

Introduction

In recent times, the Republic of South Sudan has implemented various tax policies, administrative approaches, and technology-driven solutions to improve revenue mobilization. The government reliance on oil resources and the need to diversify South Sudan's revenue base have contributed to this pressure.

The Financial Act 2022/2023 and Taxation Act 2009 Revised Edition 2022 have introduced major changes in Personal Income Tax (PIT), Business Profit Tax (BPT), Withholding Tax on rentals, Sale and Excise Tax and other changes.

In recognition of the need to keep abreast with the unfolding changes, we have organized the 2023 Annual Tax Training Seminar on South Sudan Tax Legislation which will be held on Wednesday 8, Thursday, 9 and Friday 10, November 2023 at The Palm Africa Hotel, Juba. This seminar will focus on all aspects of taxation and developments in South Sudan. We are greatly honored to invite you to this seminar.

Charges:

US$ 600. This fee includes seminar materials, refreshments and lunch but excluding accommodation, dinner and transport.

A 10% discount will be given to organizations that send three (3) or more participants.

Target group

- ▶ Tax Practitioners
- ▶ Tax Managers
- ▶ Tax Accountants
- ▶ Accountants
- ▶ Legal Officers
- ▶ Compliance Officers
- ▶ Finance Officers
- ▶ Human Resource Officers
- ▶ Finance Directors
- ▶ Chief Financial Officers
- ▶ General Managers

Key topics of discussion

Delegates attending this seminar will acquire the necessary skills in the following topical issues:

- ▶ Major trends and current developments in the tax administration including e-tax system in South Sudan;
- ▶ Personal income tax, entrepreneurial taxes, social security contributions, withholding taxes and business profit tax;
- ▶ Sales, excise, surtax, and customs taxes; and
- ▶ International trade and Customs
- ▶ International tax issues including transfer pricing, tax controversy and new tax developments relating to South Sudan.
- ▶ Managing NRA audits

For booking, please contact:

Vincent Ronoh

vincent.ronoh@ke.ey.com

+291 118 427 532

+254 723 167 431

Jennifer Nyareru

jennifer.nyareru@ke.ey.com

+254 722 873 580

Marceline Ochola

marceline.ochola@ke.ey.com

+254 707 915 968

EY Annual Tax Training on South Sudan Tax Legislation

DATES: 8TH, 9TH & 10TH NOVEMBER 2023

Venue: Palm Africa Hotel, Juba

Introduction

This seminar will focus on all aspects of taxation and developments in South Sudan. We are greatly honoured to invite you to this seminar.

Charges:

US$ 600. This fee includes seminar materials, refreshments and lunch but excluding accommodation, dinner and transport.

A 10% discount will be given to organizations that send three (3) or more participants.

Target group

The invitation goes out to officers from private entities, NGOs and government agencies.

Key topics of discussion

Delegates attending this seminar will acquire the necessary skills in the following topical issues:

- ▶ Major trends and current developments in the tax administration including e-tax system in South Sudan;
- ▶ Personal income tax, entrepreneurial taxes, social security contributions, withholding taxes and business profit tax;
- ▶ Sales, excise, surtax, and customs taxes; and
- ▶ International trade and Customs
- ▶ International tax issues including transfer pricing, tax controversy and new tax developments relating to South Sudan.
- ▶ Managing NRA audits

RSVP

Vincent Ronoh

vincent.ronoh@ke.ey.com

+254 723 167 431

Jennifer Nyareru

jennifer.nyareru@ke.ey.com

+254 722 873 580

Marceline Ochola

marceline.ochola@ke.ey.com

+254 707 915 968