EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI)

Reference No: WFC/SF/EOI/2026/01

Project Title: Bridging the Gap in GBV Coordination and Local Leadership

Issuing Organization: Women for Change (WFC)

Location: Juba, South Sudan

Deadline for Submission: 10th April 2026, 4:00 PM CAT

1. Introduction and Background

Women for Change (WFC), a leading Women-Led Organization (WLO) in South Sudan, in partnership with CAFOD and TROCAIRE in Partnership (CTP), is launching an initiative to strengthen the resilience of grassroots organizations. Amidst the current humanitarian funding crisis, WFC recognizes that local Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) and Women-Led Organizations (WLOs) are the frontlines of protection for women and girls.

This program aims to provide intensive institutional mentorship and technical support to three (3) selected grassroots organizations in Juba, central Equatoria State to enhance their legal standing, resource mobilization capacity, and participation in national coordination platforms.

2. Scope of the Capacity Strengthening Program

Selected organizations will enter a 6-month partnership with WFC, receiving support in the following areas:

- Legal Compliance: Facilitation and financial support for formal legal registration for those currently operating without formal status.
- Institutional Mentorship: A 4-month technical journey covering fundraising, proposal development, and strategic planning.
- Coordination & Advocacy: Inclusion in National and State-level GBV Area of Responsibility (AoR) platforms and participation in a 2-day Joint Advocacy Learning Event.
- Resource Mobilization: Training on identifying and competing for direct humanitarian funding.

3. Eligibility Criteria

WFC invites applications from organizations that meet the following criteria:

1. Must be a Community-Based Women-Led Organization (WLO) based in Juba.

2. Demonstrated active involvement or strong interest in GBV Programming (prevention, mitigation, and response) with women's empowerment key.
3. Preference will be given to "high-potential" organizations that are currently under-resourced or face barriers to formal registration.
4. Willingness to dedicate staff time to a 4-month mentorship process and participate in coordination meetings.

4. Application Requirements

Interested organizations must submit the following documents:

- Cover Letter: (Max 1 page) Explaining why your organization needs this support and your commitment to the program.
- Organizational Profile: A brief overview of your mission, current activities, and the community you serve.
- Registration Status: A copy of current registration (if any) or a statement explaining the lack of formal status.
- Reference: Contact information of one community leader or partner who can vouch for your work.
