Dear Sir/Madam,

EDGE AFRICA CONSULTANCY SOUTH SUDAN TAXATION TRAINING TO BE HELD ON 25TH FEBRUARY 2022 AT JUBA REGENCY HOTEL

The republic of South Sudan through the National Revenue Authority hereinafter referred to as, "NRA or The Authority", and enforcement of Taxation Act 2009, amended 2016 has embarked on a robust tax shift that target Non – Oil Revenue Collection sector. In the Financial Act 2019/2020, the government introduced many changes in the tax laws. However, these changes were not disseminated to taxpayers because the county went into lock down due to Covid19 pandemic. These tax changes are the game changers for taxpayers to realign their operations to such effect. These developments require the taxpayer to keep abreast and direct their activities in line with the changes.

As per the above debrief, Edge Africa Consulting has organized a one-day Tax Training in order for you to familiarize your business with these changes and keep you informed on important tax developments that will help your organization grow and be in compliant with the Tax laws in South Sudan.

We have assembled a team of experts with global Tax experience and local knowledge of tax regimes in South Sudan.
