

Call for EOIs: National Non-Governmental Organizations Partnership with the Action Against Hunger, South Sudan.

Action Against Hunger, South Sudan is inviting for Expressions of Interest (EOI) from South Sudan National Non-Governmental Organizations for partnership and funding opportunities.

Introduction;

Action Against Hunger has been operational in what is now South Sudan since 1985, responding to both chronic and acute humanitarian needs. Action Against Hunger addresses multifaceted crisis through implementation of multi-sectoral interventions in Nutrition, Health, Food Security and Livelihood, WASH, and Protection services to vulnerable communities across three States in South Sudan i.e. Warrap, Northern Bar el Ghazel and Jonglei States. To achieve positive impact in its efforts, Action Against Hunger wishes to enhance its collaboration with National actors and hereby launches a call for partnership with NNGOs in South Sudan.

ACF aims to collaborate with South Sudan National Non-Governmental Organizations that are well-positioned to address the Countries' humanitarian and Capacity building challenges.

Objective;

An organization with direct lived experience in providing integrated multi-sectoral interventions to conflict and flood affected populations play a primary role and whose objectives and activities are focused on responding to the needs of IDPS, returnees and/or related communities."

By working with the national organizations which are embedded in local communities, ACF aims to foster sustainable, inclusive, and impactful change, driven needs and priorities of the communities and the country.
