

Windle Trust
International

Education transforms society

50-14-3
Approved by
A Inspector

VACANCY NOTICE

JOB TITLE	Education Specialists 4 positions
LOCATION	Rumbek, Yirol, Ruweng, and Unity
REPORTING TO	GESS Team Leader
OVERALL PURPOSE	Windle Trust International is seeking a qualified, visionary, vibrant, growth-oriented and committed individual to join GESS 2 as Education Specialist. ES will have the overall responsibility of Implementing GESS2 Teacher Professional Development Programme in selected schools, mainstreaming gender sensitive approaches in all undertaken work and supporting Alternative Education System
ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW	Windle Trust International (WTI) registered as a charity in 2002 and is a company limited by guarantee in the UK. WTI formerly operated as HPCT and was formed to manage the operations of the Trust. Windle Trust International (WTI) has been working since 2005 with field presence in almost all the States in South Sudan with its head office in Juba.

Role and responsibilities

1. Participate in the induction training programme;
2. Build strong relations and liaise with the State Ministry of Education, County Education Director and Payam Education Supervisor;
3. Build strong relations and liaise with Head Teachers of schools participating in Teacher Professional Director;
4. Liaise and coordinate work with other development partners working in the locality;
5. Work in close partnership with Payam Education Supervisors responsible for schools included in the GESS TPD;
6. Build strong relationship with the GESS School Officers working in the area;
7. Conduct situational analysis of the schools included in the GESS TPD programme;
8. Implement training for HT from selected schools