

- Strong written and oral communication skills including ability to develop technical guidance and give presentations. Able to communicate clearly, concisely and accurately in English (additional knowledge of local languages would be an advantage)
- Excellent interpersonal skills to work in different settings and across cultures.
- Computer literate
- Must be a South Sudanese National

5. Duration

From September 2019 anticipated to September 2020 (project-funding dependent), with potential extension

How to Apply

Interested candidates may submit their application attaching a current CV detailing their experience for the post including daytime telephone contacts and three referees, preferably previous line managers to recruitment@shimahr.com on or before Monday 29th July, 2019. Hardcopy applications can be delivered at Health Pooled Fund Office, Tong pin down American residency road, near Turkish embassy.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted

