FUNCTION: PHYSIOTHERAPIST 2
PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT: AKOBO

Physiotherapist 2 contributes to implementing all physical rehabilitation project activities in accordance with the defined strategy. As an expert in function and mobility, s/he is responsible for and mentors all physiotherapy-related activities from the acute to the rehabilitation stage. S/He adjusts physiotherapy services based on the results of ongoing monitoring and evaluation processes as well as on project priorities. S/He is a full member of the interdisciplinary rehabilitation team which ensures patient-centred care within an ICRC-run or supported structure during emergency and non-emergency situations.

FUNCTION DESCRIPTION

- Ensures the implementation of ICRC physiotherapy standards in collaboration with the respective partner.
- Supervises physiotherapy staff and ensures sustainable physiotherapy practice.
- Ensures the continuum of care by referring individuals in need of vocational/occupational rehabilitation after their discharge to the appropriate structure.
- Sets priorities and manages timely provision of physiotherapy services within an interdisciplinary approach.
- Delivers training and coaching within his/her specialty based on ICRC internal guidelines and internationally validated recommendations.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- Degree in physiotherapy (bachelor's or equivalent) and a valid licence to practise in the country of residence.
- Relevant additional degrees (e.g. public health, rehabilitation techniques) are an asset.
- Fluent command of English and/or Arabic. Knowledge of local language(s) is an asset.
- Minimum 3 years' postgraduate experience and up-to-date knowledge.
- Teaching experience and skills are a strong asset.
- Experience with international NGOs, the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and/or multicultural or low-resource contexts are strong assets.

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) is an impartial, neutral and independent organization whose exclusively humanitarian mission is to protect the lives and dignity of victims of war and internal violence and to provide them with assistance. It also endeavours to prevent suffering by promoting and strengthening humanitarian law and universal humanitarian principles.
