

CONSULTANTS NEEDED TO CONDUCT SUPPLY CHAIN AND COMMODITY MANAGEMENT TRAINING
(2 POSITIONS)-SOUTH SUDANESE ONLY

TERMS OF REFERENCE
Purpose of consultancy:	Purpose: Amref Health Africa through support from UNDP/GF in collaboration with seeks to strengthen facility commodity management and supply chain system. Background and Rationale: UNDP/GF procures medical supplies for health facilities across the country that accounts to approximately 40 per cent of all medical supplies and laboratory reagents procured by donors on behalf of MoH. The proper management of health commodities ensures that they are available and accessible to all staff serving patients at health facilities. Thus all staff has an important role to play in ensuring good commodity management even if they do not directly handle the commodities AMREF (2009) Commodity management is important for the following reasons such as demand for health care services, quality of health services, cost, wastage, ensures continuous availability, ensures full supply and avoids irrational or incorrect use
Scope of work: (Description of services, activities, or outputs)	Objective: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Build capacity of health facility staff to management commodities • Develop training materials • improve commodities visibility management at health facility level
Expected outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training materials • Training reports with • Assessment tool for commodity management
Duration and working schedule:	The consultancy will run for a period of 4 weeks with a back to back training of 4 trainings of 5 days each.
Monitoring and progress control, including reporting requirements, periodicity format and deadline:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inception meeting after signing contract • Workshop Preparatory Meeting • Facilitators' meetings at the end of each training day • The Project Manager review and sign off final workshop report(s).
Required expertise, qualifications and competencies.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The consultant should have a higher degree (Master's) from a recognized University in Public Health, pharmacy, health supply systems or related social science. 2. A qualification in supply chain management will be an advantage 3. Should have 7 years of progressive experience in public health, with a focus on supply chain strengthening, with at least three years at international/regional level. Experience in both the private and public sector would be ideal. 4. Good written and spoken English. 5. Examples of previous reports should accompany applications
Payment:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All costs related to travel together with a consultancy fee will be supported by Amref Health Africa in Juba. • Amref Health Africa will organise and pay accommodation for the consultant.

28/10/2022

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Amref will work with MoH to organise the logistics for the participants attending meeting and training
Other relevant information or special conditions, if any	Payment schedule: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Meal allowance shall be provided during activities• Consultancy fees will be paid upon submission of final training report

How to Apply: -

Address your Application to the Attention Human Resources & Operations Department, by e-mail Jobs.southsudan@Amref.org quoting the position as the Subject Line of your email, or Hand Deliver your hard Copy Applications to our Office Located in Tonging, Opposite Former UNOCHA . The closing date for submitting applications is 4th November 2022. We regret that only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

This Position is Open to South Sudanese National Only

Amref Health Africa is committed to the principles of safeguarding. Amref Health Africa will not tolerate any form of abuse, discrimination, and harassment.

28/10/2022