REF: REQUEST FOR QUOTATION-UNW-AP&LGBV-75705-JSWA-NFI AND SOLAR SYSTEM-2023

Introduction

Jonglei State Women Association (JSWA) is a non-governmental organization, registered under South Sudan non-governmental act, 2016. It was formed as a result of human rights violation by men at home, offices and all other social interactive levels where women are discriminated, neglected and violently deprived of their fundamental rights in both of the political and socio-economical areas of social life. The organization was formed mainly to focus on urban-rural community development in various aspects for self-reliance and peaceful coexistence of communities by advocating on behalf of and for the protection of women and child rights in Jonglei state.

With support from UN WOMEN, JSWA is currently implementing Eight-month project funded by the Japanese Government as 'Access to protection and livelihood support for women and adolescent girls affected by conflicts and floods in Jonglei state' in South Sudan and believes in enhancing GBV responses and comprehensive support to families affected by the conflicts and floods in IDPs and Host communities .
