

MAXIMISING YOUR EMPLOYABILITY

CTG Female First Workshop

South Sudan 2022

When: 7th and 8th March 2022.

Where: Grand Hotel Juba, South Sudan.

CTG will be hosting a two-day workshop in Juba on the 7th and 8th March for International Women's Day to promote women's economic empowerment in South Sudan. This workshop aims to equip young women with the knowledge and skills needed to ease their entry into the formal labour market and support their creation of strong and successful careers in the aid and development sectors, and beyond.

This workshop will be guided by the Committed to Good Curricula, a series of engaging and interactive educational modules covering the following key skills:

- Identifying your strengths and weaknesses
- Staying motivated and overcoming challenges
- How to write a CV
- What to include in a Cover Letter
- How to conduct yourself in an interview
- Harnessing the power of networking

All participants of the workshop will be given a certificate and lunch will be provided on both days. After the workshop participants will also have the opportunity to engage with and network with potential employers at a FREE jobs fair. CTG will be hosting this jobs fair in partnership with the Swiss Cooperation on the afternoon of the 8th March. More information will follow if your application is accepted.

WHO WE ARE

CTG stands for Committed To Good. With an ethical approach at the heart of all that we do, it is a description that makes us proud. Respect for the fundamental human rights of our staff, and those our staff encounter, is a cornerstone of our values. We strive for gender equality, inclusion and diversity, providing fair and equal opportunities for all. We take a zero tolerance approach to corruption and stay true to local labour laws and all local statutory requirements. In operation since 2006, today we are honoured to serve clients in 15 fragile and conflict-affected countries assisting with disaster relief, peace building, humanitarian aid and development programmes through our specialised recruitment, HR management and operational services.
