

National Relief and Development Corps

Opposite TM Lion Hotel, Tongping.

Juba - South Sudan

Tel:+211915898074 //0928359098 //0924734881

E-mail: nrdcsouthsudan@gmail.com

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

National relief and development corps (NRDC) is a national, humanitarian, non-profit organization dedicated to saving lives and relieving suffering through relief and development programs. Established in 2001 by volunteer south Sudanese, National Relief and Development Corps is a private, voluntary, non-political, non-sectarian organization. NRDC purpose is to actively contribute towards poverty alleviation through promotion of sustainable self-reliance and self-sufficiency in food production and social services to attain socio-economic prosperity.

National Relief and Development Corps is therefore looking for a suitable candidate.

Position: Protection Officer
Department: Programme Unit
Report to: Program Coordinator
Location: Field Based (Malakal, Panyikango and Fashoda)
Starting date: As soon as possible
Closing date: 31/7/2020

1. Position profile

Under the supervision and guidance of the Executive Director and Program Coordinator, the Project Officer will be responsible for ensuring that projects' activities are fully implemented in accordance with proposals, according to NRDC rules and regulations and donor requirements in South Sudan.

About the job:

The Protection Officer is responsible for supervising effective protection services, including needs assessments, protection monitoring, community-based activities in line with the project.

