CALL FOR PROJECT PROPOSAL FROM NON-GOVERNMENTAL, COMMUNITY AND NOT-FOR-PROFIT ORGANISATIONS WITH OPERATIONAL PRESENCE IN AKOBO County, Jonglei State

The Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH is an international cooperation enterprise for sustainable development worldwide with operation commissioned by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ). It has been active in the Governance Sector in South Sudan for more than 15 years, partnering with the South Sudanese national institution Local Government Board (LGB) as its political partner.

The GIZ Rural Governance Program invites qualified Non-governmental National Organizations and Civil Society Organizations actors which have field offices in Akobo county to submit proposals in implementation of the citizens participation, rural development and community based conflict resolutions. This Call for Proposal is for the project activities to be implemented in Akobo county, Jonglei State.

The main action areas intended to be achieved are: (i) Upgrading capacities of selected rural administrations to provide services in rural areas and therefore improve the conditions for sustainable development (ii) Establishing a learning and mentoring platform for women in local administration and (iii) Strengthening the capacities of selected counties in the peaceful resolution of disputes over cattle migration and land between different groups in the communities.

The project partners with the Local Government Board (LGB) of the Republic of South Sudan.

Funding: The maximum amount for this project within the six months period is 20,000 US Dollars only.

6-month implementation period: February – July 2022 (for AKOBO County only)
