

Implemented by giz Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale
Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH

WE ARE HIRING

Position: Technical Advisor SGBV

Project: Prevention of sexualized and gender-based violence in South Sudan

Reports to: Project Director

Contract: 2023 – 30 June 2025

Location: Yei, with regular travel to Juba, occasional travel to other locations possible.

Background:

In South Sudan, the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH works on behalf of the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ).

The project "Prevention of sexualized and gender-based violence in South Sudan" aims to work with several actors to address and prevent SGBV. Target group of the project are internally displaced persons, returnees and host communities in Yei and Juba County. The project works in three fields of action: It (1) creates improved access to low-threshold counseling services to promote gender equality and conflict resolution in families, (2) strengthens women groups and women-led organizations in the field of SGBV prevention and response, and (3) works in schools with teachers and students to discuss gender related norms and address awareness on SGBV.

The GIZ Coordination Office Juba is urgently seeking a qualified candidate to fill the vacant position of Technical Advisor on SGBV for the above-mentioned project. The position is based in YEI within GIZ's project office.

Scope of the Position:

The technical advisor in Yei supports the overall implementation of project activities in Yei for all three fields of action. He/she interacts closely with the project coordinator and programme director in Juba. He/she supports and supervises SGBV activities, providing technical assistance and oversight. In addition, the technical advisor in Yei ensures regular exchange with project partners, intermediaries and beneficiaries, liaising with local authorities and other relevant stakeholders. He/she, in consultation with the line manager, makes technical and substantive contributions to the direction of the programme, informs the project team in Juba about developments and thereby support the achievement of the agreed objectives, of the respective project.

Your Tasks

- ❖ Planning, and implementation of activities in the project in Yei in line with the project's objective and in close cooperation with the project coordinator and manager
- ❖ Provide technical advice to the implementing partners and the output indicators. Leads technical design for SGBV activities.
- ❖ Coordination with school representatives, women groups and women led organizations,

- ❖ stakeholders, local authorities and another partner organization in Yei County.
- ❖ Contribute to monthly operational and work plans.
- ❖ Maintain good partnerships with actors, networks and organization and advise in cooperation with other thematic advisors in the field of gender and SGBV
- ❖ design, prepare and implement workshops, seminars and other events on issues related to the programs area of activity.
- ❖ formulates terms of reference and selecting and supervising third parties in the course of

- ❖ carrying out programme activities, including performance evaluation
- ❖ Draw up reports and presentation document, contributes to project reporting to commissioning party
- ❖ Representation of the project in Yei
- ❖ Maintain close cooperation with all team members.
- ❖ Regular travel is required.
- ❖ Perform other duties and tasks in the framework of the project

Your Profile

- ❖ The applicant must hold a University Degree in a relevant field, preferably in Gender Studies, Social Science, Human or women's rights, or similar. A post graduate degree is an asset
- ❖ At least 5 years of professional experience in a comparable position relating to the thematic areas of gender, SGBV and gender within South Sudan and abroad. Please provide specific areas related to the project activities in your CV.
- ❖ Work experience with international organizations is an asset.
- ❖ Experience in working with civil society groups, international and national NGOs working on gender related topics.
- ❖ Knowledge of local government structures in South Sudan and Gender related national and international legislations, familiarity with

- ❖ guidelines and industry standards for SGBV prevention and programming.
- ❖ Very good knowledge of English, and Arabic, knowledge of German is an added value.
- ❖ Excellent people skills and ability to negotiate between different stakeholder groups.
- ❖ Excellent computer skills and work knowledge of Microsoft Word, Outlook, Excel and PowerPoint.
- ❖ Previous experience in M&E, moderation and organization of workshops and meetings is an asset
- ❖ Self-drive, creativity, and problem-solving capacity are required.
- ❖ Able to work independent, responsible and target oriented.

How to Apply

Applicants should submit their CVs and cover letters declaring interest for the position digitally to the GIZ-Coordination Office by email to HR-Suedsudan@giz.de. Hard copies will not be accepted. Original documents will only be required for verification during interviews if requested. Ensure that you and your referees are reachable via the stated contact information during daytime.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for interviews. If you do not hear from GIZ within three (3) weeks after closing date, please note that your application wasn't successful. This position is open only to South Sudanese nationals, please attached your national certificate or copy of your passport to the application.

The Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH provides equal employment opportunities to all, regardless of gender, race, religion or disability (Zero Discrimination). Qualified women are highly encouraged to apply.

Opening Date: 12/4/2023

Closing Date: 2/5/2023